

Seminar: Winter Term 2015/16
Modern Political Economics
Mo 16 – 18

12/10	Michael Bolle Introduction: Welcome and all that- beginners start here
19/10	Michael Bolle Introduction: Welcome and all that- refreshers are welcome still
26/10	Reading Time
02/11	Michael Bolle The Nature of Science and Political Economics
09/11	Michael Bolle Political Science: How to aggregate individual preferences
16/11	Michael Bolleand how to assess the economic impact: Economics without
23/11	Michael Bolleand with Politics: Modern Political Economics
30/11	Michael Bolle Changing times and changing ideas
07/12	Topic 1 : How political decisions are made: The EU as an example
14/12	Topic 2: How to avoid, to combat or to nudge a crisis: The EU as an example Santa Clause will be around – his spirit, at least
	ENJOY X-MAS. Wishing you a great 2016
04/01	Topic 3: Why to cooperate internationally and not go to war
11/01	Topic 4. International Trade: Economic benefits! But what about politics?
18/01	Topic 5: Money makes the world go around. Are their risks, uncle Scrooge?
25/01	Topic 6: No empire lasts forever!
01/02	Topic 7: Poverty, Migration and Power (or the lack of it!)
08/02	Summing up and Saying Goodbye

Topic 1 to 7, details of students' presentation decided in accordance with Professor Bolle and yourself