

Seminar: Summer Term 2018

Modern Political economics

Mo.16-18 pm, Ihnestr.22/UG 4

Prof.Dr.Michael Bolle

16-4	Michael Bolle Introduction :Welcome and all that- beginners start here
23-4	Michael Bolle Introduction : Welcome and all that- including refreshers
30-4	Reading Time
7-5	Michael Bolle The nature of science and political economics
14-5	Michael Bolle Political science: How to aggregate individual preferences
21-5	Whitmonday –enjoy enlightenment
28-5	Michael Bolle Economics : Pure and simple
4-6	Michael Bolle Political science and economics: How to assess an impact
11-6	Michael Bolle ...and here is an even better way: Modern Political Economics
18-6	Topic 1 : How political decisions are made : The EU for example
25-6	Topic 2: How to avoid, to combat or to nudge societal crises
2-7	Topic 3: How to cooperate internationally and not go to war
9-7	Topic 4: No empire lasts forever? Resilience of regimes
16-7	Topic 5: Misery, poverty, war, refugees: The role of power (or the lack of it)
	Time to say good-bye !

Topic 1-5, details of students' presentations decided in accordance with Prof. Bolle and yourself